

easy as pie

*stats for success
in real estate*

Knowledge Factory, the driving force behind SAPTG, is proud to present another hard-hitting, ground-breaking, information-packed and always entertaining seminar, at no cost to you!

Dieter Deppisch, our head of training and data analysis for SAPTG, will once again wow you with his remarkably refreshing and simple approach to the otherwise complicated subject of:

statistics and how to apply them for success in real estate

The seminar also covers some basics in terms of state of property economy and quick-and-easy tips on how to maximise your sales - despite the property market downturn. An absolute must for any serious property professional.

All seminars run from 08:30 - 12:30 unless specified otherwise.
